

Bali Taman Beach Resort & Spa

Contributed by Ron B
Thursday, 07 September 2006
Last Updated Wednesday, 13 September 2006

The Bali Taman Beach Resort & Spa in Bali, Indonesia

Immediately after landing at Bali's International Airport, we are ready to drive you for about two and half hours, passing countless temple, rice terraces, beautiful lake, through impressive mountains with its tropical rain forest & hordes of monkeys, reaching to the highest point on the road and descending through coffee and clove plantations with breath taking views of the panorama to the sea until you reach our small oasis at the edge of small coastal village in North Bali.

The Bali Taman Beach Resort, is one of the finest resort hotel at North Bali, ideally nestled at the eastern end of the famous beach of Lovina just before the petrol (fuel) station. Inspired by the best selection of Balinese architecture combined with an integrated design concept in each structure reflecting the greatest care to maintain the timelessness of Bali.

The sheer beauty of landscaped garden at the entire of the resort and the artistically integrated natural environment is really perfect place where life is celebrated with genuine hospitality and smiles.

The management places great emphasis on the care of its guests and supported by experienced staffs and a unique VIP-standard of guest service, ensures that Bali Taman Beach Resort is managed and maintained to impeccable standards. You really must wonder that " We are more than you can imagine ".